Coberon-Chronos Training

Coberon-Chronos Training is a leading provider of cross-cultural courses and seminars. Our tailored and cost efficient services allow Fortune 500 organisations and SMEs to familiarize themselves with conducting business in varying cultures more successfully.

Generalist modules emphasize negotiation, small talk, cultural awareness, business meetings and dinners, getting contacts, promoting products and closing a sale.

There are also specialist modules available on variations in establishing legal entities, hiring regulations and the challenges of offshore outsourcing.

As qualified trainers with a wealth of knowledge gathered from the successful operations of the Coberon-Chronos Group in some of the world's most challenging markets, we offer a unique perspective and a completely pragmatic and focused course by business people to business people in the location of your choice.

We look forward to putting a unique training session together to address your needs when doing business in Asia, the Middle East, Africa or South America.
